

Supervision of Student Research

Sharon L. Moore, PhD, MEd, RN, R. Psych.

Presentation at FGS Orientation

October 6, 2016

Good Supervision

- Mentor →
 - “more than supervision”
 - helps the student grow
 - helps them find their strengths
 - encourages them through the tough spots
 - positive feedback re successes
 - directions/suggestions for improvement

Relationship

- Synergistic relationship
 - supervisor and student collaborate and learn from each other

Ascending the Mountain

Key Messages

Human to Human Connection

Nuts and Bolts

Mentoring

Supervision is a “WE” journey rather than an “I” journey.

A photograph of a snow-capped mountain peak rising above a thick layer of fog or mist. The sky is a clear, deep blue. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of evergreen trees are visible against the misty background.

Supervision is a “WE” journey rather than an “I” journey.